SOCIAL

The wedding of Mr. Lawrence T. Mercer, of this city, and Miss Phila Borden Hess, of Fairmont, which took place Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles J. Corbin, at Fairmont, was a decidedly pretty event.

The opening chords of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Genevieve Cunningham were sounded at the appointed hour and the bride and bridegroom descended the stairway and entered the parlor, where they were met by the Rev. H. G. Stoetzer, of the Presbyterian church, who performed the ceremony. A soft melody was also played by Miss Cunningham as the minister pronounced the nuptial vows. The bride was attired in a navy blue broadcloth coat suit, with hat and gloves to match.

An elegant course luncheon was served. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in the dining room and white asters were used for the table centerpiece, while green shaded candelabras gave a pretty glow to the surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercer departed on a month's tour to Buffalo, Niagara and different Canadian points. On their return Mr. Mercer and bride will be at home at the Waldo hotel here.

Miss Hess, now Mrs. Mercer, formerly resided in Clarksburg, but she has been a resident of Fairmont for the past few years. She is a daughter of Mrs. Belle Jacobs, of Clarksburg. Mrs. Mercer is an attractive and most estimable young lady with many admiring friends. Mr. Mercer is an enterprising druggist of this city and is connected with other business industries here. He formerly lived in Belmont county, Ohio.

Those present from a distance at the wedding were Mrs. Belle Jacobs, of Clarksburg, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mercer, of Pleasant Grove, Belmont county, Ohio, parents of the bridegroom; and Miss Agnes Miles, of Morgantown.

The following announcement cards have been sent out:

Mr. Lawrence Thomas Mercer
Miss Phila Borden Hess announce their marriage

on Wednesday, the twenty-fifth of September one thousand nine hundred and seven.

Fairmont, West Virginia
At home after October the twenty-fifth, The Waldo, Clarksburg, W. Va.

Last night at 9 o'clock at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. H. G. Stoetzer, in Fairmont, Mr. Thomas McEwan, of Clarksburg, and Mrs. Ella Cody, of Wheeling, were united in marriage. Mrs. Cody went there from Wheeling on the evening train, and was met by Mr. McEwan. The newly wedded couple arrived here last night on the 11 o'clock trolley car, and will reside at 313 Lee street.

Professor and Mrs. Thomas E. Hodges, of Morgantown, have issued invitations for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of their wedding at their home on High street, Friday evening, October 4, at 8:30 o'clock. Professor and Mrs. Hodges were married on the fifth day of October, 1882, by the Rev. J. B. Dickey, of the Presbyterian church. Professor Hodges was at that time principal of the Morgantown public schools. Mrs. Hodges, before her marriage, was Miss Mary Amelia Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maplin Hayes.

September 27, at 7:30 p. m., Hon. W. J. Pilkington, of Des Moines, Ia., will deliver an address to the Retail Merchants Association in the assembly room of the Waldo hotel. All merchants and clerks are invited to hear him. It's free.

SWEET MELODY FLOUR.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.
A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife as since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by Sturm & Wilson.

There's nothing so good for a sore throat as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures it in a few hours. Relieves any pain in any part.

SPEAKING OF FLOUR

Traveling men who have been through the mills where Dewey's Best flour is made, tell us that they are the cleanest, best process mills in the country. They don't make as much flour as some mills, but they have a genius for making the finest. They are particular about getting full test, plump, winter wheat, and they know how to do the rest. We have selected flour because it is a bread flour. It does give satisfaction. That's its reputation. People who have used it will tell you so. Just try a sack and see what "good luck" you will have next time with your bread, biscuit and pastry.
